

Faith in the Family

DIOCESE OF
OXFORD

Research shows that parents matter most in the faith formation and spiritual nurture of children and young people but we know what a struggle this is for many Christian families.

The Faith in the Family conference will explore how we might better support families and ask 'How do we help parents raise their children and young people as disciples?'

Speakers include:

Bishop Steven Croft, Bishop of Oxford; Rachel Turner, author of Parenting for Faith
Martyn Payne of Messy Church; Naomi Graham, New Wine's Inclusion Lead

Date: Saturday 11th November

Time: 9.30 (for 10am start) – 4pm

Venue: Didcot Civic Centre

Cost: £10

To book: www.oxford.anglican.org/children and book via the Eventbrite link

Further queries to Yvonne Morris, Diocesan Children's Adviser yvonne.morris@oxford.anglican.org

This is event is open to all – please bring others from your churches

